SWTGIRL

Promoting the Republican Party Kelli Bergmann and Amy Gardner hold up posters advertising this year's election.

Day and Turning Point students enjoy a Luncheon at the Chaplain's home. Marge Stiemly, Karen Summers, Jaime Oliver, Shanna Clark, Kristen Caldwell, Bonnie Seity, Wanda Spradley, Nina Harris, Jane McKenzie, Susan Seitz Jackson and Teresa McNabb pause for a photo. Day and turning point students often meet for social events.

Looking to recruit more DJs, Erin Coleman and Julia MacFall set up the WNRS table at Club Day.

Sweet Briar women do have more fun!!!

Whether your with a tight knit -group of friends or your with your favorite Sweet Briar club or organization, Sweet Briar women are always busy doing something. One group of students participated in the European Union simulation in Washington D.C. The Sweet Tones traveled to Longwood College for a successful performance. Students use Club Day to recruit more members and promote their activity. Other students prove that when a crazy day of activities is through it is always relazing to hang out with friends.

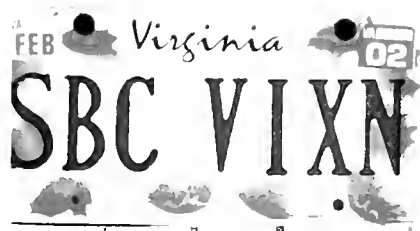

Katy Hartman, Margaret Van Hook and Sandra Grant unwind together after a hard week.

Working as a team, SBC Habitat for Humanity Club Members raise the wall of a local Lynchburg building. The SBC Habitat Chapter worked with the Amherst Chapter to provide housing for low income families.

Sweet Briar Song

*Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar; flower fair;
The rose that on your crest you wear
Shall never fade, but always bear
Thy beauty, O Sweet Briar!*

*Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar; thy columns white
Shine on thy hills a beacon light
Of truth, to burn with radiance bright
Forever, O Sweet Briar!*

*Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar; we sing to thee.
May thy foundation ever be
Strong as thy hills, thy purity
That of thy rose, Sweet Briar!*

Class of 2003

These Juniors were just tapped for the Chung Mungs, one of the many tap clubs on campus. In this tap club, you are tapped fall of your Junior Year. The Chung Mungs leave goodies for the underclassmen all year long.

At one of the Carbon Leaf Concerts this past year, Carrie DeShazor, Lindsay Kinyon, and Kelly Hughes stop to pose for the camera. From their smiles we know they are having a great time.

These new Bum Chums are hanging out with Amber Brkich, famous from the television series "Survivor". The Bum Chums are another one of the tap clubs on campus. These Juniors were all tapped the spring semester of their Sophomore year.

In this beautiful life there's always some sorrow and it's a double-edged knife, but there's always tomorrow. It's up to you now if you sink or swim, just keep the faith and your ship will come in ... it's just an ordinary day and it's all your state of mind. I am eternally grateful to my wonderful family for supporting me in every way, and to my grandparents for giving me the gift of a college education. If it were not for their generosity, I wouldn't have known the treasure of inspirational and devoted professors who have given so much of themselves to help me transform my dreams into tangible creations nor would I have been afforded the luxury of a glorious semester in Italy. I also owe so much to local folks who have shared with me their wisdom, time, and trust. People are art in and of themselves, and I wish I could adequately thank all of them for allowing me to capture their images to form my own pieces of art from them. I have been blessed with countless friendships... my friends and mentors from school, home, around the country and across the Atlantic, know that I love you all and will never forget you!

It is impossible for me to adequately express how valuable our friendships and memories are in only a few words. We have been given a very special gift, the opportunity to be together, share experiences and grow as both individuals and friends. I would like to thank all of my friends and professors for making my college years a truly unique experience. To Henry and Jenny Martin-thank you both for your generosity. To my parents-You both have been an incredible source of inspiration for me and have shown me that with a little bit of hard work and persistence anything is possible. To the rest of my family-Allen, Clifton, Lee, Susan, Leighton, and Evelyn I thank you all for constantly supporting my dreams and aspirations. -Wish me luck in San Diego!!!

"How could I till my forty acres
 Not to speak of getting more,
 With a medley of horns, bassoons and piccolos
 Sturred in my brain by crows and robins
 And the creak of a wind-mill--only these?
 And I never started to plow in my life
 That someone did not stop in the road
 And take me away to a dance or picnic.
 I ended up with forty acres,
 I ended up with a broken fiddle--
 And a broken laugh, and a thousand memories,
 And not a single regret."

An extra year, two lifetimes of memories. Mark, Jack, Chandler, Victor, Sam - always my boys. You gave me peace when the world fell apart - it did a lot! All the dark mornings of Wylie's Way to IHSA tryouts, everyday at the Cottage, and too many credits/semester. Fergus, Ohio, Halifax, VNU. Zones, Sp Adult Ch at the Annual, Adv WTC to Open. Each day you pass the breaking point of the day before. Shanna, for her words/sparkles; Megan, Erin, Alicia, my IHSA saviors; Jen, war games compatriot. Struby, who taught me how to live, Marco who taught me love. Mom, Dad, Chickiedoae, who never grouched at Telecom bills. And then there was "Fell", the masterplan of all insanity, and I learned how to FLY.

Reid started it all, clique, navy game, wild turkey, tequila, alcohol fines, husbands, Thursdays, blistex, IM, scary school. Slow sophomore year, scary roommate, Richmond, breaking stuff, taping bottles, four trips to HSC, Mardi Gras, Bum Chums. Junior year began our double, dell party with 50 boys, three hour conversations, getting up, playdough, temptation island, lady with the purple beads, slipups, 21 shots, the letter, kidney stones, five open bars. Senior year closed it, weddings, ring games, 12 hours in Maryland, wine and cheese, monopoly, Isabelle, Vegas or bust!

"The soft minded man always fears change. He feels security in the status quo and he has an almost morbid fear of the new. For him, the greatest pain is the pain of a new idea." MLK Jr.

Along with my spectacular family and friends, Sweet Briar has prepared me for this inevitable change. It wasn't inevitable however, that I'd be as confident and calm as I am now. I am so grateful to the women who left cities, family, and men to be here: Intisar, Alicia, Amanda and Meg. Olya, I love you so much. If you ever need a roommate...

Mary Beth Colvin

Mary Beth, it seems like yesterday that we held you as a baby. Time has slipped past us quickly. You have grown from a precious baby girl into such a special young lady. "You've got a big heart. Keep it filled with happiness. You've got a fascinating mind. Keep finding new ways to grow. Keep yearning. Keep learning. Keep Smiling. And keep remembering that your parent's love goes with you...everywhere you go."

You have accomplished so much and we know that your accomplishments will continue. You have many possibilities in your future. As one of your favorite authors puts it: "After all, tomorrow is another day." (Margaret Mitchell)

We are so proud of you and love you very much.

YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE!

Dear Bubbles,

As you are about to depart from the womb of college life, we are confident that you have been equipped with the necessary skills to be truly successful in life. We also know that you have been blessed with "the gift of gab" which should help open many doors for you. The other fact of life is that we love you dearly and we are so very proud of you! God Bless, Love, Mom and Dad

The day you came into our world
We were so proud of our baby girl
You laughed at such an early age
Your brother knew you were ready to play
You melted our hearts and cast your spell
On everyone you meet, even today
From a little girl with blonde hair and blue eyes
Into quite a woman in the blink of an eye

As you step out in the world so brave
Know you have made us proud
In every way!
And after you accomplish all your dreams
Here's hoping one day you'll have-your own little sunbeam!
Quack, Quack!
Love, Mom, Dad and Gary Wayne

I Wish You Enough
 I wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright.
 I wish you enough rain to appreci-

 I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive.
 I wish you enough pain so that the smallest joys in life appear much bigger.
 I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting.
 I wish you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess.
 I wish you enough "Hello's" to get

YOU'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN

It seems like only yesterday that you were born. Our baby girl is growing up and graduating from college.

Your life as an adult is just beginning! You have made us so proud, you have accomplished so much! You have persevered when others would have given up. Dad says that you remind him of "The Little Engine That Could" and Rocky Balboa. The world is now yours to conquer. We know that you will do your best no matter what you do! Your future awaits you, go out and begin your new life.

We Love You!
Mom & Dad
